

Course Outline

IPDTA Tactical Pistol Shooting Course

Who is this course for?

The IPDTA Tactical Pistol Shooting Course has been designed to meet the needs of Law Enforcement Officers as an introduction to the use of firearms or for beginners or as a further professional development for students with some operational or firearms training and experience in the use of firearms.

Course Goals

The course syllabus includes weapon familiarisation and operation, stance, drawing and reloading, sighted and instinctive point shooting and closes quarter combat tactics.

Course Location

The course is held at a training facility in the Slovak Republic, which is situated at the foot of the Carpathian Mountains approx. 20 Kilometres from the Country's capital Bratislava.

Accommodation is provided at a 4-star hotel with breakfast and amenities which include a bar, spa-pool and sauna.

Students will depart from Manchester Airport and arrive in the Slovak Republic on a stipulated date as agreed.

Martin D Cooper Consultants staff will meet students at the airport and accompany course attendees on the flight.

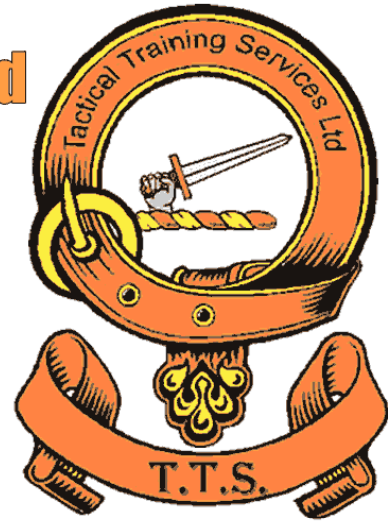

Upon arrival at Bratislava Airport staff and students will travel in convoy to the course accommodation for registration and briefing. Once the course ends on the stipulated date as agreed, students will be returned to Bratislava Airport for their own return to the U.K.

The course has been designed to be of benefit select law enforcement agencies and roles but is of particular importance to:

- ❖ Security Personnel/CPO/Law Enforcement Officers
- ❖ Operational Staff who carry firearms
- ❖ Police Officers
